Dear Mr. Volfson:

Subject: Procuring Russian Caviar

Recently, I was talking to Ms. Katherine Sanders, the proprietor of a fine dining establishment here in Miami. When I mentioned that I have been having a difficult time procuring high quality Russian caviar for COASTLINE GOURMET IMPORTERS, my chain of retail food stores, she suggested that I try contacting you.

COASTLINE GOURMET carries high-quality specialty items imported from around the world. If, in fact, you can provide ~~CAVIAR THAT MEETS OUR STANDARDS~~, I would be very interested in discussing terms and availability. I have enclosed a brochure that describes COASTLINE GOURMET, or you may want to look us up on the Web at coastlinegourmet.com.

Sincerely,

Mr. Benjamin Boghosian
